HOOPER FARMER VICTIM OF PICKPOCKETS WHO TAKE $115 FROM HIS POCKETS

One hundred and fifteen dollars, money intended for taxes on his farm at Hooper, was taken this morning from pocket of J. W. Byington of that town, by two clever pickpockets. The farmer was standing in the Ogden State bank, preparing a deposit slip at a desk. He kept out the $115 from his deposits, intending to pay his taxes, and shoved the money into his trousers pocket while he finished the bank business. He turned to the window, completed his business and then discovered that he had lost the money. An alarm was spread.

Upon investigation it was learned that two young men had seen the farmer after he had placed the money in his pocket and then quickly leave the bank. They could not give a good description of the strangers, but sheriff's deputies immediately started to hunt for the pair. It was characterized as a case of the "rush act" in every detail. The farmer had no remembrance of the men jostling him, as they are said to have done the trick in such a clever manner that they did not disturb him as he was preparing his deposit slip.

An uncommon angle of the case was that Deputy William Brown and Richard Wootton entered the bank just a few seconds after the robbery, knowing, however, nothing about what had transpired. They went to the bank on business and got there just in time to be informed of the robbery.

ROBT. McQUARRIE, HONORED GUEST OF SECOND WARD, IS GIVEN A PURSE OF $2500 BY HIS FRIENDS

Last night at the Second ward hall, Bishop and Patriarch Robert McQuarrie was the honored guest at a sociable given as a testimonial for his more than 54 years' services as head of the ward's church activities. It was one of the greatest demonstrations of the kind ever held in Weber county.

The climax of the event was the presentation to the retiring bishop of a purse of $2500, as a token of the respect and esteem in which the venerable man was held by all who knew him. Honored with Bishop McQuarrie were his two faithful counselors, George Shorten and C. J. A. Lindquist, who were each presented with a combined edition of the Bible, the Book of Mormon, Doctrine and Covenants and Pearl of Great Price.

The program started shortly after 8 o'clock. Seated on the stand were Bishop McQuarrie, Elders Shorten and Lindquist, Apostle David O. McKay, Presidents L. W. Shurtliff, John Watson and A. L. Scoville, of Weber stake. President John L. Herrick of the western states mission and Elder J. M. Thomas, with the present bishopric of the Second ward George E. Browning and Counsellors Newman and Jones.

Wellcome Address. Bishop Browning announced the purpose of the meeting and paid tribute to the honored guests in words of the highest praise.

Apostle D. O. McKay eulogized the venerable bishop most impressively. He expressed the regrets of the First Presidency at not being able to attend the meeting.

Other brief addresses were made, all praising the retiring bishopric for their unselfish labors among the people. Interspersed with these talks were musical numbers by prominent vocalists and instrumentalists of the church.

Following the formal part of the evening's program the amusement hall was the center of attraction and there the crowd danced until midnight, and enjoyed the bounteous refreshments supplied.

"ONE TOUCH OF NATURE."—George Kline K.E.S.E. SERVICE

"One touch of Nature," from Peter B. Kyne's story in the Saturday Evening Post, displays in film a fascinating romance interwoven with the national game of baseball. There is more romance than baseball in the story, however.

John Drew Bennett, Viola Cain and Manager John J. McGraw, of the New York Giants, are featured in "One Touch of Nature."

RAILROADS OFFERING ASSURANCES OF COAL SUPPLY

The work of the Weber county fuel committee, appointed by W. W. Armstrong, chairman of the fuel committee for the inter-mountain country, has resulted in obtaining enough coal in the city during the time it has been at work, to avert the danger of an immediate famine. This committee, composed of Dr. E. M. Conroy, chairman, S. T. Whitaker and Thomas G. Burt.

It is estimated that during the past ten days between 130 and 140 cars of coal consigned to Ogden over the Denver and Rio Grande have arrived and reports from the Union Pacific indicate that there has been at least 80 cars over that road.

Aside from the assurance of Frank Fouts, general agent for the Denver and Rio Grande, that his road will do all it can to see that Ogden gets coal, Dr. Conroy today received a letter from the Union Pacific railroad to the effect that it would give coal the right-of-way over all other kinds of freight. This letter came from H. L. Bell, assistant superintendent, and reads as follows:

"Dr. E. M. Conroy, chairman federal fuel commission for Weber county, Ogden, Utah. My Dear Doctor: Replying to your letter of the 1st instant, beg to state that the Union Pacific Railroad company is, at this time, giving coal priority of movement, and every effort is being made to keep mines supplied with cars, same being moved daily in special trains, and when loaded, moved promptly to destination. So far as this company is concerned, you can rest assured that everything possible will be done to avert the threatened coal famine in Ogden."

The reports from the county districts, gained through the efforts of the Weber County Fuel bureau, show that there is much more coal needed outside the city. The reports have been received from twenty-one districts, and there are still six districts to be heard from before the exact shortage is known. The reports already received show that in many cases, there is not a pound of coal and the people are resorting to the use of wood.
